

Steve Prescott Foundation Yorkshire Three Peaks 2020

September 4th – 6th Based at The Dalesbridge Centre

Steve Prescott Foundation Yorkshire Three Peaks 2020 Introduction

- Nestled within the Pennine Range of the Yorkshire Dales National Park lie the iconic three peaks of Pen-y-ghent, Whernside and Ingleborough. Your challenge is to summit all three peaks in 12 hours, so that The Steve Prescott Foundation can continue supporting The Christie, The Rugby League Benevolent Fund & SPF Special Causes Fund as well as continuing the great man Steve Prescott's legacy.
- The Yorkshire Three Peaks is 24.5 miles in total and must be completed within 12 hours due to fading light.
- Your first summit in the early morning will see you ascend 2,227 feet to the top of Pen-y-ghent, but there will be no hanging around, as you trek on through to midday and your second summit, Whernside, the highest peak at 2,415 feet.
- Finally the afternoon will lead you on to your third and final summit, up 2,372 feet to the top of Ingleborough, with awe-inspiring views across the beautiful Yorkshire Dales National Park.
- The Steve Prescott Foundation want you to look and feel the part when you're exploring the great outdoors. So along with your welcome pack, which will contain lots of great fundraising advice and support, you'll get your breathable high-tech trekking T-shirt to wear on the day.
- You'll also receive advice on the kit you'll need to face the elements, and training to make sure you're in the best shape possible to go the distance.
- You can look forward to support from our team from Accelerate Coaching who will be mountain guides on the day. In addition, our fantastic team of volunteers will greet you with a warm welcome as you arrive for registration. They'll also be there to congratulate you as you finish your challenge and present every trekker with a special medal which you can wear with pride. There is a post party celebration at the Dalesbridge Centre.
- You'll leave with stories to tell of your amazing adventure and the friends you made along the way, safe in the knowledge that you've helped those less fortunate than ourselves.

The Dalesbridge Centre will also host our Y3P after party that sets this charity challenge head and shoulders above the rest. This will also allow you to bring your family, friends and enjoy the fun.

It is hard enough tackling the Y3P without having the pressures of driving to the Three Peaks before and after, all our accommodation has now been fully booked but we do have ample space for Tents and Electric Hook Ups for Caravans.
